A 30 Minute Think: Reporting to the NJ MVC

Douglas Maute, Esq.

Cipriani & Werner, P.C., Partner

Doug Maute is a partner in Cipriani & Werner's Mount Laurel office where he is a member of the firm's medical malpractice and general liability groups. Cipriani & Werner is a mid-Atlantic regional litigation firm with nearly 150 attorneys in 14 offices and is listed in Best's Directory of Recommended Insurance Attorneys.

Doug has extensive experience in litigating complex medical malpractice matters and has defended physicians, nurses, hospitals, and other healthcare providers insured by many of the major medical professional liability insurance carriers in New Jersey. He has been an invited guest speaker for Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital and the Rutgers School of Nursing to share his comprehensive legal insights.

Doug volunteers his time serving as the president-elect of the Society for Health Care Risk Management of New Jersey, chair of the Moorestown Planning Board, and as a founding member of the Mary E. Roberts Elementary School Green Team.

Update on state-wide initiatives and activities Report from organization

Jonathan Chebra

NJHA, Director of Government Relations and Policy

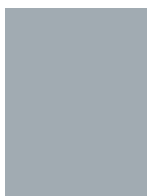

Jonathan Chebra is the Director of Government Relations and Policy for the New Jersey Hospital Association. Jon advocates on behalf of the association's nearly 400 acute and post-acute members for public policy to better serve their patients.

He works daily with New Jersey legislators and administration officials on legislation and public policy proposals that affect our healthcare and the way it's delivered, always with a goal of expanding coverage and access to high quality care.

Jon previously served as Chief of Staff for Assemblyman Herb Conaway, the Chair of the Assembly Health and Senior Services Committee. During his tenure, he wrote and advanced a number of key healthcare initiatives, including measures expanding access to treatment for chronic diseases and tackling opioid abuse.

Prior to that, he worked for U.S. Senator Frank Lautenberg in his Capitol Hill office, performing many duties including economic policy staffer. Jon has also worked on numerous political campaigns on the local, state and federal levels, and remains politically active in his community.

Incidental Findings: Why Tracking Radiologists' Recommendation

Richard J Friedland, MD

Dr. Friedland is a practicing neuroradiologist, licensed in both NYS and Connecticut. He's been President / Managing Partner of his radiology group, Hudson Valley Radiologists / DRA Imaging since 2010. He is also the CEO of radloop™, whose mission is patient safety by communicating and tracking actionable findings while reducing administrative tasks for radiologists and referrers.

Dr. Friedland has been active professionally throughout his career. He's currently the President of the NYS Radiological Society and a Councilor with the ACR. He's also served on the board of trustees of Health Quest Hospital System and Vassar Brothers Medical Center, been President of the Medical Staff of Vassar, been active on numerous hospital committees including Quality, IT, Clinical Improvement, Patient Satisfaction, and Credentialing, and served on the board of directors of a major nighthawk company.

Academically, Dr. Friedland has been an instructor at Yale's School of Medicine, received his fellowship training in neuroradiology at Yale-New Haven Hospital, was the Chief Resident in Radiology at Montefiore Hospital in NYC, and did his internship at Yale-Norwalk Hospital. Dr. Friedland received his MD from Albert Einstein College of Medicine in NYC.
